

Concours d'Art Lyrique de la Relève Musicale | 9th edition

Regulations 2023

The Concours d'Art Lyrique de la Relève Musicale is open to any singer in training in a college or university institution and/or in a Quebec music conservatory (college or university level).

It aims to promote classical singing among young singers in training and to perfect their art on stage according to different criteria established by the members of a jury present during auditions to be held on February 18 and 19, 2023 at Salle Henri-Gagnon in Université Laval's L-J-Casault building.. Different prizes will be awarded to singers with the best vocal, technical, scenic and aesthetic qualities. These prizes will be awarded at the end of the auditions of the different categories of the competition.

Each candidate must download and complete the registration form available on the RMdQ website (www.larelevemusicales.com – CALRM tab).

The evaluation criteria will be shared between the members of a jury, including at least one professional singer, who will judge the vocal, musical and technical qualities of the candidate.
